

BOARD BIO
HARRY G. BROADMAN

Independent Director, PartnersGlobal, international alternative dispute resolution services firm
Chair, Audit Committee; Member, Executive Committee

Independent Director, Strategic Ratings PLC, UK-based corporate and sovereign credit rating agency
Chair, Compensation Committee; Member, Governance Committee; Member, Strategy Committee

Member Advisory Board, ArmorText, cybersecurity intra-enterprise communications software

Member, Advisory Board, Lake Tanganyika Floating Clinic, African healthcare and telecom services

Member, International Advisory Board, APCO Worldwide, global crisis management

Prior Independent Director, Corporate Council on Africa

Prior Independent Director, US-Russia Chamber of Commerce

---

Objective: Helping firms seize '1st mover' global competitive advantage to propel growth; enhance operational agility and drive innovation; mitigate market, cyber and compliance risks; and be a model for fulfilling governance and sustainability objectives

---

Harry G. Broadman is a Partner and Chair of Emerging Markets at BRG LLC; a Faculty Member at Johns Hopkins University; an Independent Corporate Director; and an NACD Board Leadership Fellow and Commissioned NACD Board Advisory Services Faculty Member. He counsels C-suites and boards of U.S. and non-U.S. corporations, banks, private equity firms, pension funds, institutional investors, and sovereign wealth funds on the design, financing and execution of global growth operations; structuring international investment and trade transactions; instituting sound corporate governance, sustainability, ESG, and compliance practices; management of global supply chains, logistics and access to infrastructure services; investment in R&D and innovation; implementing state-of-the-art protocols for mitigating cyber risks; and navigating economic and national security regulatory regimes and antitrust policies. He also serves as an expert witness in international arbitration and litigation on business disputes in these areas. He has worked on the ground in 85+ emerging markets across 5 continents, and his sectoral expertise spans financial services and investment banking; advance technology; infrastructure services; and energy, minerals and natural resources.

In 2015, he stepped down as Senior Managing Director at PricewaterhouseCoopers, where he founded and led PwC's Business Growth Management Consulting Practice, which operated in 20+ countries. Prior to PwC, he was Managing Director at Albright Capital Management, the international private equity firm Chaired by Madeleine Albright, where he served on the Investment Committee. Earlier, he was a senior official at The World Bank, overseeing the bank's largest sovereign and enterprise restructuring loans in China, Russia/CIS, the Balkans, and Africa. He served in the White House as Chief of Staff of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and United States Assistant Trade Representative, leading negotiations establishing the WTO and NAFTA, all U.S. Bilateral Investment Treaties and all U.S. International Science and Technology Agreements, as well as serving on the Board of Directors of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) and as a Member of the Committee on Foreign Investment in the U.S. (CFIUS). He has held posts at the RAND Corporation; The Brookings Institution; and Resources for the Future Inc. In addition to Johns Hopkins, he has served on the faculty of Harvard University.

Broadman has held a number of senior leadership positions:

- Partner and Chair, Emerging Markets, BRG LLC
- Senior Managing Director; Leader, Global Business Growth Management Consulting Practice; Chief Economist, PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC)
- Managing Director and Chief Economist, Albright Capital Management LLC (international private equity firm)
- Lead for Sovereign Finance Operations and Enterprise Restructuring, China |Russia and the CIS| The Balkans |Africa, The World Bank Group
- United States Assistant Trade Representative, The White House (under Presidents George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton)
- Member, Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) (under Presidents George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton)
- Chief of Staff, President's Council of Economic Advisers, The White House (under President George H.W. Bush)
- Board Member, U.S. Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) (under Presidents George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton)
- Chief Economist, US Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs (Chair, John Glenn)

Broadman is a global authority who has published several books and numerous articles in professional, peer-reviewed finance, economics, law and foreign policy journals, and is extensively engaged as a keynote speaker on matters related to global business operations, corporate governance, sustainability, innovation and competition.

He received an A.B. in economics, magna cum laude, from Brown University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Michigan.

- Elected Lifetime Member, Council on Foreign Relations
- Lifetime Member, The Bretton Woods Committee
- Board Leadership Fellow, National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD)
- Monthly Columnist: Forbes; Quarterly Columnist: The International Financial Law Review; Frequent Columnist: The Financial Times